Today was the day that Jack was taken down to the Gold Coast, where Jason Coleman, Matt Lee and the press awaited him to hand over his $200,000 cheque!! ...

It was all smiles and laughs, as Jason and Matt tried to run away with the cheque themselves.

Jack was asked of course what he is going to do with the money...and aside from saving it for the day he wants to move to New York, he said that he is(and already has) given $10,000 each to Kate, Demi & Rhys. "They worked just as hard a me on that show and we put our bodies on the line each week, and they walk away with absolutely nothing, it was the least i could do."
